

ALIEN ARMS ORDER EXPIRES TOMORROW

All Germans Found With Weapons After Noon Subject to Arrest.

POLICE TO TAKE CENSUS

Alien enemies, residents of this city, who fail to turn over to the police all arms, ammunition and other contraband mentioned in the President's proclamation before noon tomorrow will be subject to summary arrest and punishment. Maj. Pullman's order directing the temporary surrender of such property was issued more than a week ago, and eight aliens who do not possess naturalization papers have complied with its provisions, shotguns, pistols and rifles being the arms surrendered.

Confiscation if Police Must Act.

Confiscation of property will be made only in cases where owners fail to comply with the notice and force the police to make search and seizure. Maj. Pullman's order was based upon a letter from Attorney General Gregory in which he transmitted the part of the proclamation of the President bearing upon alien enemies, which reads:

"Any firearm, weapon or implement of war, or component part thereof, ammunition, Maxim or other silencer, bomb or explosive, or material used in the manufacture of explosives; any aircraft or wireless apparatus, or any form of signaling device, or any form of cipher code, or any paper, document or book written or printed in cipher, or in which there may be invisible writing."

Maj. Pullman last night stated that alien enemies, which include all unnaturalized natives of the countries at war with the United States, who fail to comply with the provisions of the order may expect trouble. Possession of arms and ammunition by such persons after noon tomorrow, he stated, has been taken as prima facie evidence that they are being held for an unlawful purpose. No alien enemy, he stated, has reported having a wireless apparatus. Enforcement of that portion of the President's proclamation relating to the dismantling of wireless apparatus resulted in the police putting more than 230 such plants out of commission, and the next matter they will take up in connection with the war preparedness plan involves alien enemies residing or approaching an area of one-half mile from the navy yard, Washington and marine barracks, the munition plant of the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company and the Naval Observatory.

Police to Make Surveys.

The superintendent of police expects to be furnished with a plan showing the half-mile limits of the several places enumerated early in the week. Members of his command will then make surveys of all such areas and report the number, if any, of alien enemies residing in them. It is said that some such persons may be given special permits to remain in such areas.

It was stated last night that a military census soon will be taken in this city, which will furnish the police the names and addresses of all alien enemies, and examination may be made of their premises for the purpose of determining if they have any contraband in violation of the President's proclamation. United States Attorney Laskey and Marshal Spain are co-operating with the police department in making the necessary preparations.

FRENCH RETAKE TRENCHES ON MACEDONIAN FRONT

PARIS, April 21.—An official statement says:

"Oriente: After brilliant counter attacks, our troops, supported by a few elements of the 15th at Tarvina Stena. About sixty prisoners, most of them Germans, remained in our hands. To the east of the Cerna the Serbian troops repulsed two enemy attacks."

SIR FRANCIS C. BURNAND DEAD

Former Editor of Punch, Playwright and Author Succumbs.

LONDON, April 21, 8:50 p.m.—Sir Francis Cowley Burnand, former editor of Punch, died at Ramsgate, his home, today.

Sir Francis C. Burnand was editor of Punch from 1862 to 1906. He was a playwright and author of much light literature. Among the more than 120 plays, chiefly burlesques and light comedies, of which he was the author, was "Black-Eyed Susan," which ran for 800 nights at the Royalty Theater, Soho, and was played for years in America. He was a barrister as well as an author. He was eighty-one years old.

Canned Peas Poison Family.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 21.—One person is dead and three others critically ill in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Young of this city, as the result of poisoning from what physicians say was the eating of canned peas Thursday. Mary Leona Young, seven-year-old daughter, died last night from the effects. Mrs. Young, a little son and another daughter are suffering at a local hospital from the poison. Mr. Young ate none of the peas.

FELLED BY MOTOR CAR, WOMAN, 68, DIES LATER

Mrs. Jennie McKeldin, Wife of Chief Operator for Western Union, Hit Near Center Market.

Mrs. Jennie McKeldin, sixty-eight years old, 2220 1st street, yesterday afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock was knocked down by an automobile at Pennsylvania avenue and 8th street and so seriously hurt that she died shortly after she reached Emergency Hospital. She received a severe fracture of the skull.

Isadore Suser, who conducts a store at 517 13th street northeast, owner and occupant of the automobile that knocked Mrs. McKeldin down, was arrested and taken to the first precinct station by Crossing Policeman Middleton. He made no effort to get away, but remained at the scene of the accident until the policeman arrived.

Counsel Arranges Bond.

Later his counsel, Samuel Gusack, made arrangements for his release on bond for his appearance at an inquest that will be held at the morgue at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The accident happened in front of the 8th street entrance to Center Market. Suser had purchased supplies for his store and was on his way from the market and making the turn from the roadway leading to the market into Pennsylvania avenue when Mrs. McKeldin was struck and knocked down.

Suser told the police his car was moving at the rate of not more than four miles an hour and that Mrs. McKeldin jumped in front of it in an effort to avoid being struck by an automobile that was going at the rate of at least fifteen miles an hour. He stopped his car immediately, but not in time to prevent the accident.

Lived Here Forty Years.

W. Harry McKeldin, chief operator of the Western Union Telegraph Company, husband of the deceased, reached the hospital about the time his wife died. The deceased, who was a native of Baltimore, had lived in this city more than forty years. The family resided in southeast Washington until a few years ago. Mrs. McKeldin is survived by her husband and a son, Dr. Bert McKeldin of Philadelphia. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

MANCHESTER FREEDOM GIVEN PREMIER BORDEN

Canadian Statesman Says American Ideals Are the Same as Those of the British People.

By the Associated Press.

MANCHESTER, April 21.—Sir Robert L. Borden, premier of Canada, was given the freedom of the city of Manchester today. In his speech of acceptance he predicted that after the war German industries would be supported and developed by the most thorough and powerful state organization ever known. He said that if the militarist autocracy remained in control the possessions and integrity of the British empire would not remain unchallenged.

Referring to the entrance of the United States into the war, he said: "The great kindred nation adjoining the Dominion from which I come has been impelled by the relentless and overbearing arrogance and aggression of Germany to take up arms in a common cause of liberty and humanity. From the very foundation of the republic the traditions of American policy have been consistently opposed to intervention in any European war. They would never have committed this fateful step save for the overmastering cause of honor and right."

"Peace-loving People." "Our neighbors are peace-loving people, as we are, but those who imagine they are more greatly influenced by material considerations than other nations fail to realize or comprehend the true spirit of the people of the United States. Their astonishing progress and industry and their remarkable capacity in affairs may have led to a false conception—possibly they have some misconception with regard to us."

"I hold that the self-governing nations of the British empire are as truly and thoroughly democratic in their purposes, ideals and aspirations as any nation in the world. It has been wittily said that the United States might be regarded as a monarchy under an elective king, and the British empire as a republic under an hereditary president, and it is perfectly true that the President has much greater executive power than the king. In all essentials the ideals of government are the same in both countries and the spirit of the two nations is the same."

Union Jack and Old Glory.

"In this conflict thousands of American citizens have enrolled in our forces and have fought gallantly and heroically side by side with Canadians. It will be a glorious day when the Union Jack and Old Glory advance together in the same cause on freedom's battlefield."

"I have spoken of the responsibilities of our empire; let me emphasize even more strongly the joint responsibility of the American republic and the British commonwealth. Inspired by the same ideal, united in a common purpose and acting in unselfish and loyal co-operation they possess a power, both moral and material, which can command the peace of the world. May they exercise that power for the highest of all purposes."

Britain Bars New Newspapers.

LONDON, April 21.—In order to conserve the paper supply, the publication of any new newspaper without a special license from the board of trade has been prohibited.

HORSES FOR U. S. ARMY.

Lathrop, Mo., Remount Station Offered to Government.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 21.—An announcement was made here today that the Remount station at Lathrop, Mo., owned by private interests supplying horses and mules to the United States had been offered to the United States for use during the war. The announcement, made by officers of Gayton and Harrington, the owning company, was to the effect that similar but smaller stations at Kansas City, East St. Louis, Nashville and Columbus, Tenn., and Port Chalmerte, Fla., would be put at the government's service. The plant at Lathrop was said to have a stabling capacity of more than 30,000 animals.
